Company history/background

Successful restaurant in a very popular summer village, which is open all year round.

The restaurant occupies two premises on the most popular avenue in the village, with a large terrace at the front.

The village is very popular and touristy during the summer (April-September) and has a constant flow of visitors during the rest of the year on weekends, holidays and vacations.

Owner wants to transfer the business to a quieter business in the same village.

The restaurant is well known, with an Italian menu of pizzas and pastas and some international dishes.

Unique selling points

There is a long term contract with a very reasonable rent.

Inside there are about 90 diners, and outside another 120 seats (30 tables).
