Company history/background

The company has been providing training in the medical field (osteopathy, naturopathy, medical Qi Gong, etc.) for 30 years. Particularly in the last 10 years, we have experienced strong growth and highly profitable development. Years of medical research have resulted in the development of a unique diagnostic and treatment protocol, which is unparalleled in Germany. The academy operates a quality management system based on DIN ISO 9001. As part of the company succession plan, 100% of the company shares, including all business assets and equipment, are to be sold to a suitable buyer. The continuous development of our training programs offers excellent growth potential. Our clients are self-paying individuals seeking professional development or a career change.

Training in osteopathy, alternative medicine, and medical Qi Gong.

Unique selling points

- Active since 1987
- The research at the academy led to a completely new diagnostic and treatment concept in osteopathy.
